FOREWORD

As you leaf through this yearbook, we hope you will be able to recall memories which you have experienced, and can enjoy reliving some of our experiences which we have enjoyed during the 1959-1960 school year.

We want to thank our advisor, all the students, faculty and friends who have co-operated in helping us to complete this book.

We, the Waka Memories Staff, know we have enjoyed putting these experiences down on paper so that in years to come, we can look back and remember the year we graduated, 1960.

DEDICATION

We, the Class of 1960, are proud to announce the dedication of our yearbook to a well-loved teacher, Mr. James C. Eaton. He started his teaching career at New Paris in 1935. In 1939, he went to Argos and taught there four years. He came to Wakarusa as a coach in 1944; but the following year he resigned his work here and went into business. In 1954, he came back to Wakarusa and has been teaching here since that time. He is respected and admired by everyone as a person as well as a teacher. He always takes a personal interest in the activities of the school and also in each individual student. He is an outstanding member of the faculty of the Wakarusa Community School.

ADMINISTRATION

To the Class of 1960:

Wake Memories is the result of hard and consistent effort on the part of the class and advisor. We are grateful to you, who have given great effort that we may have a condensed record of events of this school year. May this yearbook serve as a challenge and inspiration to those who have the same responsibility in future years.

May your post-graduate activities also give you much pleasure and enjoyment knowing that this activity was an activity well done. Success to you in whatever your field of endeavor.

Sincerely,
Nelson C. Eaton, Principal

MR. JAMES C. EATON
OUR CLASS SPONSOR

As our sponsor for the past four years, we have learned to love him very much as a personal friend, as a teacher, and also as a guide through our class activities. There has been no problem, so large or so small, that we could not take it to him and feel assured that he would do his best to see us through. With his lively humor, he was one of us and yet he has been our guiding hand through our high school days. We, the Class of 1960, want to express our deep appreciation with a hearty THANK YOU—MR. EATON.

SENIOR CLASS TRIP

WAKARUSA HIGH SCHOOL — CLASS '60

WASHINGTON, D.C. OCTOBER 1959

AGENDA

Sunday, October 18

Our class met in Warsaw and prepared to board the Pennsylvania R. R. at 2:20 P. M. We were accompanied by our class sponsor, Jim Eaton, and Mr. and Mrs. Dale Anglemeyer our chaperones. Mr. Dooling, our trip organizer, also accompanied us on our trip. Mr. Nelson Eaton came to the station to give his last farewells. After we were settled on the train, we were given a brief review of our tour of itinerary. Soon, before we were ready to settle for the night, Butch and Bud surprised use all by appearing in gaily designed nightshirts.

Monday, October 19

We arrived in New York at 7:00 A. M., a little tired from the night before. We went directly to the Hotel New Yorker and checked into our rooms. After breakfast, we were free until 1:00 P. M. Some of the girls went shopping, or just became acquainted with the city. A few of them visited the ship Independence which had docked. After lunch we assembled in the lobby. We then boarded buses for a Glass top tour of Lower New York. We visited Chinatown, the Bowery, Wall Street and other important sights. After the first tour, we returned to the hotel for lunch. At 3:00 P. M. we left for a visit to the Statue of Liberty, via Circle Line Yacht. Most of us walked to the head of the Statue. It was a long walk and we were tired when we returned to the boat. After supper, we were given flowers for the evening. At 7:00 P. M., we boarded the subway to Radio City Music Hall, to see the Rockettes, the F. B. I. Story, and a stage show. The subway ride was an interesting experience for most of us, especially when we had to rush from the car before the door closed. After the show we walked to the Empire State Building, via Times Square.

Tuesday, October 20

After breakfast, we began a glass top bus tour to the United Nations Building. At 10:00 A. M., we toured upper New York. We then returned to the hotel for lunch. The rest of the afternoon was free. Most of us took advantage of this free time and tried to observe the sites that the tours did not cover. A few of us went to the R.C.A. building, some went shopping, and others returned to visit lower New York. After dinner we assembled in the lobby to check out of the hotel and leave for Washington, D. C. At 10:30 P. M. we arrived at Washington and checked into Hotel Raleigh. After we were settled in our rooms, we heard the fire sirens. Our first thoughts were that the hotel was on fire, but the fire was further on down the street. Carl Pletcher, who was anxious to get a good view of the fire, climbed out onto the air-conditioner, three stories from the ground. The next morning, after breakfast, we began a Capitol Hill Tour. We posed in front of the Capitol to have our pictures taken. After lunch we boarded the bus for a tour of Mount Vernon. We became very well acquainted with our two bus drivers, who were both constantly pulling practical jokes. Harry, one of them was assisted by a Co-captain, Carl Pletcher. He did a great job too! This tour included the Arlington National Cemetery, with the tomb of the unknown soldier. A few of the girls posed for a picture in back of a tombstone with a certain familiar name on the front of it. After dinner, we began a night tour of the city. We found out that today was Mr. Anglemyer's birthday and we decided to have a surprise party. A committee was picked to arrange for this after our night tour. We rented a suite for the party and it turned out to a most enjoyable evening.

Thursday, October 22

Hurrah! This was the first morning we were permitted to sleep a little later. After breakfast we toured the Bureau of Printing and Engraving, the Washington Momument, and the White House. We then returned to the Hotel to eat lunch and check out. Afterwards we visited the F. B. I. Building and the Smithsonian Institute. After touring these places we returned to the bus and found a little negro boy singing for a few of the kids. Russell sang a few songs for all of us before we left to board the train. Most of our last hours on the train were passed away by group singing. A few of the boys hung a sign above the door, reading "The Hall of ivy." Of course we will never forget our 1-2-3-wow! That was yelled when a passenger would walk through our car. Mr. Dooling left earlier than we did, but most of us were awake and gave our last farewells. We couldn't have had a more pleasant organizer to travel with us on our trip than he.

Friday, October 23

We were very tired when we climbed from the train at 6:30 A. M. in Warsaw. We all felt a little sorrowful that the trip must end, but it will be forever in our memory. We had a very enjoyable, educational, and perfect senior Class Trip.

Harry and Co-captain, Butch!

The name sounds familiar!

Our little entertainer!

Time for Beddy-Bye!

Mr. Dooling, our trip organizer?

He wins every time!

Aw, can't I peek?

CHEER BLOCK

JUDY SMELTZER, Sponsor

"Are you ready, Mr. Dillon?" No, it's not "Gunsmoke," it's the key line to one of the popular new yells this year as done by the Wakarusa Cheerblock. This is the cheerblock's second successful year, led by Judy Smeltzer. However, a few changes have been made. The block consists of girls from grades seven to twelve. They have added white gloves to their outfits, and the girls in the front wear white corduroy skirts and whate tennis shoes which add color and class to the group. There are ninety-six members and six substitutes in this group.

High Sales Girls

G.A.A.

The purpose of the Girls' Athletic Association is that those interested in athletics may have the privilege of participating in clean and wholesome sports under the supervision of a sponsor, Mrs. Borgman.

Any high school girl is eligible and awards are given for participation in different activities. Points are given for each accomplished activity. For 150 points, a pin is given, 250 points a pennant, 350 points a plaque, and 355 points a jacket.

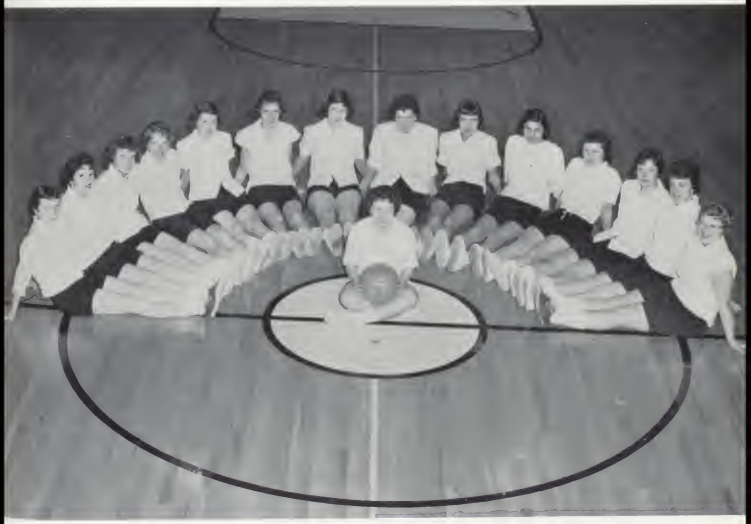

Each year we recognize an outstanding girl who is honored at an annual spring banquet. Our money making projects cover these expenses. Our big money making project for this year was Christmas Card sales, and this year two high sales girls are being recognized.

Mr. Rogers, advisor for the "Memories" annual staff has a tremendous job each year. It is his responsibility to choose, organize and train a group of eager, inexperienced seniors in their one and only publication. He has never failed us. With the able assistance of our editor, Rachel Myers and her staff, the job is completed. Everyone contributes many hours of time to the project. There is much to do before the deadline, and the deadline must be met.

We, the annual staff, hope that you enjoy this book as much as we enjoyed putting the work into it.

MEMORIES

COMFO-SLEEP, INC.

The Student Council, sponsored by our principal, Mr. Eaton, does an excellent job of helping program and govern the school. One of their duties is to provide some of the entertainment before the student body each month. In the past, this entertainment has included movies, speakers, and professional acts.

Also, the council takes action on important decisions to be made concerning the school. On special occasions they present a special program such as the Christmas show.

Student Council representatives are elected from each class and school Club.

WAKA-HI-LITES

The main function of a school newspaper is to stimulate interest and provide information concerning the many school functions. Our own Waka-Hi-Lites plays its part in the school routine in a fine manner. Mr. Rogers, the staff's advisor, patiently aids the Hi-Lites production through-out the year. The paper is scheduled to be ready for distribution every two weeks. Occasionally, there is a greater span of time than fourteen days from one paper to the next, but generally the staff does a fair job of meeting deadlines.

Each staff member is given an assignment for every issue of the Hi-Lites. There are a few standard columns such as "Club and Class"; "Snoopin' " "Sports"; and 'Kiddy-Korner."

In January of each year the staff is reorganized and vacancies left by the seniors are filled by underclassmen who are interested and have the time to spend in this extracurricular activity.

YOUTH FOR CHRIST

Every Wednesday at 12:05 in Room 5 the Y. F. C. (Youth for Christ) meets. Wakarusa has the largest club in Elkhart County, a fact of which we are justly proud. The programs include: local ministers addressing the group, movies, student speakers, and professional entertainers. They also have a Bible Quiz Team which has held the County championship for four years. There are 6 members and they quiz about 10 times each year.

The Club's purpose is to impress the importance of Christian living on the lives of young people today.

The Senior Library Club plays an important role in our everyday school life. They have complete charge of the library, under the direction of Mrs. Miller, the school librarian. The girls keep the book shelves in order, maintain a file which shows the location of each book, and assist the other students in locating information for class assignments or general information. They meet whenever necessary. Some members attend a Library Conference held annually at Indiana University. The club is responsible for any publicity of new books in the library. This they do by keeping a bulletin board and holding a book review before an assembly. In preference to this, they may prepare a list of all new books purchased by the school. The girls are able to mend books and process them for use by the other students.

Some of our members hold membership in the state-wide Hoosier Student Library Association.

CONCERT

The concert band provides opportunity for high school students to learn to appreciate good music. The music they play covers a wide variety At the basketball games, they provide songs with a spirited, up-tempo swing. However, the mood changes to a more serious nature when the band rehearses for their annual spring concert and the contest.

The band contests involve more than many people imagine. The contestants are graded not only on their presentation of music itself; but on their poise and attitude before they go before the judges. From the moment they arrive on the scene, they are under the close scrutiny of the judges.

With Mr. Montieth, their director, to assist them, they improve their individual and group skills. It is hoped that they will be able to exchange concerts with other schools in the near future. Also, they conduct a series of concerts in the town square during the summer.

TRAINING BAND

The Training Band is organized for those music students who are not qualified for the marching and concert bands, but do have music ability. The majority of its members are in the sixth, seventh and eighth grades. The training band members' goal is to join the senior band. They perform in an annual joint concert with the high school concert band.

The training band has their own uniforms and officers, this is also considered a solid subject and credit is granted for participation in it. It is under direction of Mr. Montieth.

The future of the Wakarusa High School Band rests in the hands of these young music students.

MARCHING BAND

An organization at Wakarusa which always adds to the school morale is the Marching Band.

During the basketball season, the band presents a series of programs at halftime. It includes various figures formed on the floor, plus a variety of music. The colorful red uniforms, the baton twirlers dressed in white, and the strutting drum major, make an attractive scene which will always stand out in the memories of Wakarusa graduates.

Every year our band leads the parade of masqueraded grade students through the town on Halloween. They attend contests where they compete with other bands in the county.

Band is considered a solid subject in school, and the members do get credit for participation. Often they may be seen practicing precision marching out on the school yard and in the parking lot. Several members display medals won at various contests on their uniforms.

Waky is proud of her marching band and feels that it does an excellent job of representing the school and lends greatly to the school spirit.

Miss Standridge, the Girls' Chorus Director, this semester, appears to be proud of her charges. She teaches them to appreciate all kinds of music, and they enjoy it immensely. They meet three times a week, and plan to perform at a program of some kind this spring. They will participate in the annual music festival with choruses from all over Elkhart County. Several of the girls have taken part in contests already this year.

The chorus has done ensemble work. They have a trio which did perform at the Student Council Christmas Program and other school functions. They have given polished performances on ever yoccasion.

The chorus consists of high school girls who are interested in music. Grace Weaver and Melba Overholser alternate as accompanists on the piano.

GIRLS' CHORUS

PHOTO CLUB

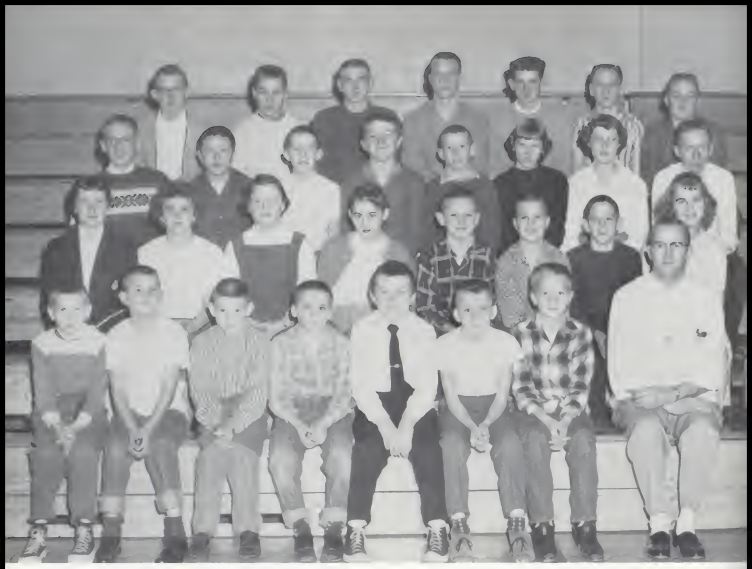

No matter where you are in school, or what time it happens to be, you learn to expect the click of a camera shutter or the flash of a flash bulb.

Always on the alert for different pictures, they roam the school with their camera and film. They are taking pictures for the school annual and perhaps for their own records and scrapbooks.

The club maintains a darkroom where they develop their own pictures. Mr. Weaver, our science and math teacher, advises the group. The club is in its second year, and plays an important role in recording our various school functions.

WIZARDS

The Wizards 4-H Club, led by Mr. Williams, the school agriculture instructor, is an active group of co-eds who are interested in the agriculture end of the 4-H move. They participate in projects which range from livestock to conservation. This includes dairy, beef, electricity, and many others. In 4-H, the individual learns to take pride in his project, and in working with his hands. He learns by experience the practical points of farming, and caring for animals.

The Wizards age group is from 9 to 21. It is not necessary to be in school to be a 4-H club member. To wind up a busy summer of working on their projects, the club conducts a tour of ecah member's home where the individuals show what they have accomplished that year. Usually, the tour is ended with a swim or barbecue at a lake or pool.

4-H is a wonderful organization for any youngster who is lacking activity during the summer. The Wizards Club is always open to new members.

The Hopi Maidens is the Home Economics Girls 4-H Club at Wakarusa. There are two clubs Junior and Senior, but both organizations have the same goal—to teach girls home economics by having them actually working on various projects themselves.

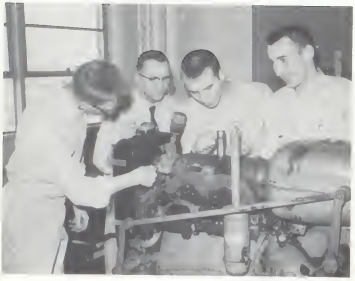

The club leader is Mrs. Geraldine Cook, an expericenced Home Economics instructor. With her assistance, the girls learn the secrets of cooking, sewing, preserving food, and many other sciences. At their monthly meetings, the girls check each other's projects, give demonstrations, associate with people their own age, and take care of any problems which arise.

At the county fair, the girls display the results of the summer's work. They are awarded cash prizes, but more important is the experience they have gained and the self improvement, both mentally, and physically.

HOPI MAIDENS

The F. F. A. (Future Farmers of America) teaches boys of high school age the fundamentals of good farming practices. They meet once a month or more, according to the occasion.

The boys have a newly organized dairy livestock judging team. They have participated in county contests and have done well in their work.

Led by Frank Williams, the school agriculturist, the F. F. A. conducts pest drives and sponsor different school activities. The members are devoteed to farming and are interested in learning the occupation thoroughly. This is their 6th successful year as a school organization.

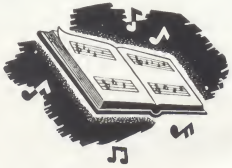

F.F.A.

JUNIOR HIGH CHORUS

The Junior High Chorus was organized by Mrs. Wiebe during the first semester of the school year. Boys and girls from the seventh and eighth grades who like to sing were invited to join. They meet the fourth period every Tuesday. The chorus sings mainly for their own amusement. They have planned no public appearances. Junior High Chorus provides a good background for the students when they try out for the high school choruses.

JUNIOR LIBRARY

The Junior Library Club is for students interested in library work. It is made up of Freshmen and Sophomores. The group meets regularly and Mrs. Miller instructs them in library techniques. They learn the filing system, how to mend books, and all the duties of a librarian. The club members pay dues, elect their own officers, and are organized as one of the clubs of the school.
